PROPERTY OVERVIEW

(Information Provided By The Owner)

Flat 28 Dove House Court is a block of 61 retirement flats for independent living residents over 60 surrounded by beautiful well tended gardens. There are many shops nearby and bus stops right outside and ample free parking. The flats are leasehold and Dove House Court Ltd is a non-profit organisation self managed by residents and any profits are ploughed back into the Court for the benefit of everyone.

There is a team of duty managers on call 24 hrs/day, housekeeping assistants, handyman and a restaurant. Free tea/coffee daily in the lounge and one and a half hours of free domestic care per week. Extra domestic help can be bought in house if needed but not personal care. There is a comfortable residents lounge and separate sun room, laundry and games room with a computer for residents use. There is a social committee and many activities organised each week eg yoga, quiz nights, films and a variety of talks and entertainment. You can tend a part of the garden if you like gardening. Post is collected from the office daily and prescriptions can be delivered from the chemist.

Flat 28 is on the first floor overlooking the gardens at the front of the building and the shops and buses can be seen through the trees and is only a few yards from one of the three lifts that go directly to the managers office and the lounge and dining room. Nearby there is a chemist, post office, dentist, a good variety of shops and eating places and bus stops right outside. Buses from outside go to Solihull and Birmingham via Acocks Green Olton and Solihull Railway Stations.

The flat is light and spacious and gets the morning sun until lunchtime. It has gas central heating and a modern electric flame effect fire with a wooden surround and a marble base. There are telephone points in the bedroom and lounge. The kitchen has been replaced and has a much sought after pantry and built in half dishwasher, washer and dryer machine, built in microwave, oven, warming drawer, and fridge/freezer. There are 2 double bedrooms one with Jack 'n' Jill ensuite bathroom comprising toilet, washbasin, separate walk in shower and bath and another room with washbasin and toilet. There is also an airing cupboard and a separate storage cupboard.

The vendor has loved living at Dove House Court. It is a very friendly and helpful place with a community spirit where every need is met except personal care. If you are the person that buys the property then we are sure you will be happy living at Dove House Court.

It is leasehold with an extended 990 year lease. The monthly service charge is £645 and the Council Tax Band is F.
