PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Introducing this charming two-bedroom semi-detached property, nestled along a serene street boasting picturesque views over the idyllic village Green. If you are a first-time buyer seeking a cosy abode to call home then this residence offers a blend of comfort and potential in equal measure.

Upon entry, you are greeted by a welcoming entrance hallway thoughtfully equipped with ample storage solutions, ensuring a clutter-free living environment. The main living space beckons, a generously proportioned dual-aspect living/dining room flooded with natural light, promising versatile layouts to suit various preferences and occasions. Adjacent lies the well-appointed fitted kitchen, designed for both style and functionality, harmonising ample workspace with modern conveniences. Completing this level is an additional utility room, conveniently connected to a separate store room, catering to practical needs and organisational demands with ease.

Ascending the stairs to the upper floor unveils two generously sized double bedrooms, each offering a peaceful retreat at day's end, characterised by comfort and privacy. The family bathroom stands nearby, designed with quality fixtures and a timeless aesthetic, catering to daily routines with effortless comfort and elegance.

Stepping outside, the property reveals a rear garden, presenting a serene oasis to unwind and revel in the fresh air. A patio seating area invites al fresco dining and entertaining possibilities, making it an inviting spot for relaxation and enjoyment during warmer months.

Promising a harmonious blend of tranquillity and convenience, this property's prime location offers a coveted lifestyle within easy reach of local amenities and transport links, ensuring a seamless balance of comfort and accessibility for its occupants.

With its versatile layout, practical features, and promising potential, this property stands as a promising choice for those seeking a desirable residence or a wise investment opportunity within a sought-after community.
